AESPERTO

The Lookbook

Volume I · 2026

Espresso, built into the architecture.

The best espresso machine in the room is the one you cannot see.

Aesperto builds the machine into the counter itself. The group heads rise from the surface; the engine room lives below, behind your cabinetry. What remains on the counter is coffee, and the person making it.

The pull.

Twenty-five seconds, nine bars, and a crema the colour of hazelnut shell. Tripunto™ holds each group within half a degree, so the second cup tastes like the first.

Any counter you can dream up.

The Filo™ deck sets flush into wood, stone, concrete or steel. Three of our favourites, from recent installations:

A site survey confirms fit before any cut is made. Professional installation is available nationwide and quoted in writing after your survey — or your own installer can work from our published requirements. Machines carry a one-year parts warranty.
